

INFORMATION FOR SHIPPERS

Chicago & Eastern Illinois Road
Will File Freight Tariff
in a Few Days.

Washington, Dec. 24.—By special permission of the interstate commerce commission, the Chicago & Eastern Illinois Railroad company, for itself and for the Rock Island and Frisco lines, will file with the commission in a few days one of the most remarkable freight tariffs ever constructed by an interstate carrier. The proposed tariff will be a compilation of local, joint and proportional rates on lumber and lumber products in carloads from various points in the middle west and south to other points in the middle west and the east and Canada.

Note of the Commission.

For some time the interstate commerce commission has had its experts engaged in examining the proofs of the proposed tariff, and the commission has directed that the tariff shall contain the following note:

"As an assistance in reaching more simplicity and clearness in tariff construction and contemplating eventual statements of rates in specific form, the interstate commerce commission hereby, by its special authority of Dec. 12, 1908, No. 7,590, to the Chicago & Eastern Illinois Railroad company, granted temporarily, and subject to revocation by the commission, permission to issue this tariff and to include this rule therein."

Notice by the Road.

"Contained in the tariff is another note by the Chicago & Eastern Illinois, as follows:

"In the publication of this tariff, it is the desire of these companies to place in the hands of their shippers and connections clear and complete information as to the tariff rates, not only from the gateways from which these companies operate, but in a special section provide rates to particular gateways, so that the persons using this tariff will have in one tariff complete information concerning rates from the point of origin of the shipment to the final destination of the consignment."

Co-operation Invited.

Co-operation with the shippers is invited in the following paragraph in an address by the carriers:

"To our patrons: It has been the aim to show this information in as comprehensive manner as possible, and in order to perfect it in all its details and maintain this issue on a correct basis, we wish to urge upon you freely to communicate with the undersigned (P. C. Reilly, general freight agent), calling attention to any correction, omission or inconsistency which may appear to you. In other words, we invite suggestions or criticisms which will tend toward making this tariff a more perfect and complete issue, and one which will in every way fulfill your requirements."

CHRISTMAS TRAGEDY.

Drunken Youth Killed by His Brother-in-His Father's Store.

St. Louis, Dec. 24.—A special to the Republic from Dexter, Mo., says that Fred McCullum was killed by his brother Harry McCullum in a store which took place in the father's drug store this afternoon. The store was well filled with Christmas shoppers at the time. Fred had been drinking, and his father called the town marshal to take charge of him. The officer arrived and the boy drew a revolver and ordered the marshal not to enter the store. The officer withdrew, but Harry McCullum, paying little attention to the trouble, began lighting the lamps. Fred stepped up to him and began firing. Harry then pulled out a revolver and killed his brother. J. M. McCullum, the father, was apparently retired from business three years ago and the management of his affairs in the hands of his older son, Harry, who is 21 years old.

SLIGHTLY DIFFERENT.

(By the Horse Editor.)
'Twas the night before Christmas,
And all through the house
He'd come home with a noise,
His clothes in disorder lay piled on a chair,
In the hopes that they'd sweeten by a breath of fresh air.

Jacob A. Moss, a Rio Grande Western passenger conductor, who resides at 163 Poplar avenue, in this city, was the victim of a cowardly attack by a thug at Thistle Junction early yesterday morning. He was seriously injured and is being treated at the Proctor hospital. The thug, who was a man of about 30 years of age, was seen running from the scene of the attack.
